

Colourful cuisine
The vibrant pictures in Annabel Karmel's I Can Eat A Rainbow (Dorling Kindersley) will help fusspots view fruit and vegies in a new light. Available from book stores, rrp $16.95

Dinner demolition
These Constructive Eating utensils will help your little builder bulldozer through his meals. Available at all Alfresco Emporium stores or from www.alfrescoemporium.com.au, rrp $27.95

it's a kid thing

PP brings you five creative food fixes for all your mealtime matters

Fence in the food

My Plate-Mate clips onto a little's plate so she gets to feed herself minus the mess. Call 1300 119 837 or visit www.roseandlily.com.au, rrp $16.95

Meals on wheels

Designed to attach to shopping trolley handles, the OnTray can be loaded up with snacks to keep a tot busy while mum shops. Visit www.babytulp.com.au, rrp $12.50

Bib on the run

Turn a tea towel, napkin or hanky into a bib with the nifty Clip-a-Go-Go. Call 03 5348 1853 or visit www.larkmade.com.au, rrp $24.95

Compiled by Ann Bevan
Photography Anthony Adamsen